

Walking and Cycling Paths for Historic Crisfield

Red Path: 4.40

Starts at McDonalds towards the Beach dock for a breath of fresh air and listen to the sight and sounds of the birds, onto the Working Waterman Harbor to view one of the largest oyster piles on the Eastern Shore. Finish your walk or cycle at the "Old Train Depot" to the sounds of the "Unique Manner of the Beautiful Elizabethan English"
The Finish line to complete 4.40 Miles is back to McDonalds.

Blue Path 2.40 Miles

Start at the "Old Train Depot" to Ninth Street down to the Crisfield Heritage Museum thru the gate, one of the Largest Marinas on the East Coast. View the majestic boats and tall sails towards the fishing pier to see the "Days Catch", onto Norris Drive down to Glenwood Evans Seafood equals 1.20 Miles and back to the "Old Train Depot" equals 2.40

Green Path: 4.40 Miles

Starting at McDonalds head east onto "One Of The First Dirt Roads" Somerset Ave, where you will find "Historic Victorian Homes" some date as far back as early 1850's. As you stroll thru a piece of time in History, you will enjoy the slow quaint place of Crisfield heading down past "Cedar Marsh" and our Beautiful Marina towards "Tangier Sound" to Glenwood Evans Seafood 2.20 miles and Back to McDonalds equal 4.40

